Parent – includes a guardian and every person who has parental responsibility for the child, including parental responsibility under the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth) and any person with whom a child normally or regularly resides.

Policy

Schooling is compulsory for children and young people aged from 6 to 17 years (unless an exemption from attendance or enrolment has been granted).

Daily attendance is important for all children and young people to succeed in education and to ensure they do not fall behind both socially and developmentally. School participation maximises life opportunities for children and young people by providing them with education and support networks. School helps people to develop important skills, knowledge and values that set them up for further learning and participation in their community.

When attending, students are expected to be at Outdoor School during normal hours every program unless there is an approved exemption from school attendance for the student.

Both schools and parents have an important role to play in supporting students to attend school every day.

Outdoor School believes all students should attend school all program days, when the school is open for instruction and is committed to working with its school community to encourage and support full school attendance.

Our school, along with the attending school, will identify individual students or cohorts who are vulnerable and whose attendance is at risk and/or declining and will work with these students and their parents to improve their attendance through a range of interventions and supports.

Students are committed to attending school every day, arriving on time and are prepared to learn. Our students are encouraged approach a teacher and seek assistance if there are any issues that are affecting their attendance.

Parents are committed to supporting their child/children to attend our school as part of their enrolment at their home school. They will communicate openly with the other school and provide valid explanations for any absence.

Parents will communicate with the relevant staff at Outdoor School about any issues affecting their child's attendance and work in partnership with the school to address any concerns.

Parents will provide a reasonable explanation for their child's absence from the school and endeavour to schedule family holidays, appointments and other activities outside of school hours.
